St. James's, October 30.

THIS being the Anniverſary of the King's Birth Day, his Majeſty received at Noon the Compliments of the Nobility, Foreign Miniſters, and other Perſons of Diſtinction. On this Occaſion the Guns in the Park and at the Tower were fired; and in the Evening there were Bonfires, Illuminations, and other publick Demonſtrations of Joy throughout London and Weſtminſter.

Naples, October 7, N. S. On the 1ſt Inſtant at Night a Fire broke out at the Palace of the Marquis di Simone, which, notwithſtanding the Aſſiſtance of a Detachment of 150 Soldiers ſent there to extinguiſh it, reduced to Aſhes one of the Apartments, and the rich Furniture in it, the Damage of which is reputed to be very conſiderable. On the 2d ſailed from this Port, to cruize in the Adriatick, the King's Frigate Notre Dame de la Conception, as did on the 6th the Ship of War St. Charles, the Frigate la Reine, and the Shebeck, to cruize likewiſe againſt the Barbary Pirates.

Moſcow, Oct. 10, N. S. The Lord Hyndford, Ambaſſador from the King of Great-Britain, ſet out from hence on the 8th Inſtant in the Morning; it is thought his Excellency will ſtop a few Days at Petersbourg, and then proceed to Berlin in his Way to England. The Grand Duke has conferred on M. de Buckweld, Grand Prelate of Preetz in Holſtein, the Order of St. Ann, of which he is Grand Maſter; at the ſame Time he made him one of his Privy Counſellors, and ordered him a yearly Penſion of 2000 Crowns. The Cold Weather begins to ſhew itſelf in theſe Parts, and Yeſterday there fell a prodigious Quantity of Snow; notwithſtanding which, her Imperial Majeſty remains in the Country, and ſeems to take no Notice at preſent of ſetting out for Petersbourg; ſhe is now at Troitza, whither ſhe went on the 7th, to celebrate the Feaſt of St. Sergey, Patron of that Place; and the Grand Chancellor Count Beſtuchef is alſo gone thither to lay before her Majeſty the Contents of ſeveral Diſpatches he has received from foreign Courts, and the Reſult of ſeveral Conferences which have been held here.

Rome, October 11, N. S. The Bulls were lately iſſued out at the Datery in Favour of Count Romoroſchi, Primate of Poland, to whom a Reduction of Half the Fees has been granted by a ſpecial Favour of the Pope. Laſt Week M. Sampario, the Portugueſe Miniſter, preſented to the Pope, in the Name of the King his Maſter, a Calice of Gold, and ſeveral other Implements, uſed at Maſs, of Silver gilt, in Conſideration of the Trouble he had in the Function of Bleſſing the new Altar ſent to Lisbon for the Royal Chappel. Cardinal Alexander Albani was complimented on the 4th Inſtant, being the Emperor's Name Day, by the College of Cardinals, the Foreign Miniſters, Princes and Nobility, Subjects, and well-wiſhers of the Court of Vienna; the Cardinals Mellini, Barni, Guadagni, Bardi, Meſmer, Ricci, and Corſini, and the Dukes of Bracciano, Sforza, Strozze, and Corſini were to pay that Compliment in Perſon.

Rome, October 18, N. S. The Pope has lately conferred the Title of Marqueſs on M. Silvio Alvetreti, and M. Odoardo Odoardi, Deſcendants of the ancient and noble Family of Aſcoli. The Biſhoprick of Lorette, which has been for ſome Time vacant, is at laſt given to the Abbe Marquis Onorati di Pizzardoni.

Florence, October 17, N. S. On the 15th Inſtant, the Empreſs Queen's Name Day was celebrated here with the uſual Solemnity, the Foreign Miniſters, the Gentry, and Military Officers, appeared in their rich Habits, many of whom were on that Occaſion entertained at Dinner by M. de Richecourt, and in the Evening the uſual Fire Works were play'd off, and the Cannon of the Caſtles were fired. On the 16th a Detachment of 40 Gunners were ordered from theſe Fortreſſes to reinforce thoſe of Leghorne and Port Ferraio. Laſt Week many Foreigners of Condition arrived in this City from the Lucca Baths, amongſt which are the Prince Borgheſe, the Duke Mattei, the Marquis Maccherani, the Prince della Ciſterna, and others, in their Return to Rome, &c. From Parma we are informed of the Arrival at Lyons, on the 13th Inſtant, of the Dutcheſs of Parma, who is expected at Placentia by the latter End of this Month, where the neceſſary Preparations are made in that Caſtle for her Reception.

Florence, October 21, N. S. We hear from Leghorn, that they had lately felt there ſeveral Shocks of an Earthquake, which however had done no conſiderable Damage; and that an Algerine Veſſel was arrived there, which 'twas ſuſpected had ſomething of a contagious Diſtemper on board, thirty Perſons having died in her Paſſage; whereupon Orders were immediately given for all the Merchandize, and other Effects on board, to be conveyed to the Lazaretto.

Turin, October 18, N. S. Several Expreſſes have lately arrived with Diſpatches from the Chevalier Oſorio, our Ambaſſador at the Court of Spain, in relation to [redacted] of the Duke of Savoy with the Infante Donna Marie Antoinette, for the Celebration of which Preparations are already making; and 'tis ſaid the King intends to preſent this Princeſs with Jewels to the Value of 3000 Crowns. The Marqueſs de Rivarola, General of the Armies of his Sardinian Majeſty, Knight of the Order of the Annonciade, and Governor of the City and Citadel of Alexandrie, died in this City the 14th of this Month, in the 80th Year of his Age.

Vienna, October 18, N. S. Wedneſday laſt being St. Thereſia's Day, there was in the Morning a ſplendid Appearance of the Nobility, &c. at Court, and in the Evening a Ball and Illuminations.

Vienna,

Vienna, October 25, N. S. Count Konigſegg, Grand Maſter of the Emperor's Houſhold, the young Count de Schonbrun, and M. Gardiner, were Yeſterday introduced to the Aulick Council of the Empire, and took their Places as Members of that College. His Imperial Majeſty ſet out the 23d Inſtant for Feldsberg, to take the Diverſion of Hunting for a few Days.

Dantzig, October 25, N. S. M. Guidickens, Miniſter Plenipotentiary from the King of Great Britain to the Empreſs of Ruſſia, who arrived here the 20th of this Month, ſet out this Day on his Journey to Petersbourg.

Zurich, Oct. 29, N. S. M. Boſc de la Calmette, Miniſter from the States General to the Helvetick Body, arrived here from Bern the 22d of this Month, in order to execute a Commiſſion from their High Mightineſſes with this Canton; on the 26th he was complimented by a Deputation from the Grand Council, and the next Day was admitted to a publick Audience.

Dreſden, October 29, N. S. The Baron de Stein, one of the King's Privy Counſellors, attended by two Secretaries, ſet out Poſt Yeſterday Morning to execute a Commiſſion at the Imperial Court. The Count de Czembeck, Canon of the Cathedral Church of Cracow, who came hither to inform the King of the Diſſentions which had happened between the two Families of Czartorisky and Potocki, upon the Subject of the Election of a Marſhal of Petrikau, ſet out on the 27th for Poland.

Paris, Oct. 31, N. S. Letters Patents have paſſed the Seals for eſtabliſhing an Academy in the City of Amiens, of which the Intendant of the Generality and the Abbe Chauvelin, have been elected their firſt Members. The Earl of Bath arrived here ſome Days ago, and on the 26th he was preſented to his Majeſty at Fontainbleau by the Earl of Albemarle, the Britiſh Ambaſſador. The States of Bretagne have been extraordinarily aſſembled within theſe few Days paſt, whereat M. de Pontcarre de Viarmes, Intendant of that Province, aſſiſted in the King's Name, and ſignified his Majeſty's Pleaſure for their raiſing of the twentieth Penny. The King propoſes returning from Fontainbleau to Verſailles on the 12th of next Month. The Court has received an Expreſs from the Infante, by which they are informed that ſhe arrived at Aix in Provence on the 22d Inſtant, in perfect Health.

Berlin, Nov. 1, N. S. The Baron de Roſencrantz, Miniſter from the King of Denmark, arrived here Yeſterday with his Lady and a numerous Retinue; and M. de Voſs, whom the King has named his Envoy Extraordinary to his Daniſh Majeſty, is on the Point of ſetting out for that Court.

Copenhagen, Nov. 1, N. S. The Houſe of Oldenburg having now poſſeſſed the Throne of theſe Kingdoms three hundred Years, without Interruption, a Jubilee has been celebrated here on that Account. All the Princes of the ſaid Houſe, who remain in the Daniſh Service, and moſt of the Nobility in Denmark and Holſtein, aſſiſted at the Ceremony, which begun with Divine Service in the Chappel Royal on the 28th Inſtant, and concluded on the 30th with a Ball at Court, each Day having been diſtinguiſhed with ſomewhat ſuitable to the Occaſion, as well as with the uſual Entertainments of Muſick, Dancing and Feaſting. One very large Silver Medal, and two of a ſmaller Size, ſtruck in Commemoration of this Solemnity, were preſented to every Perſon of Diſtinction, and a conſiderable Number of a Sort, ſomewhat bigger than an Engliſh Half Crown, were thrown out to the People. The Chief Houſes in Town were each Night illuminated with proper Devices, and the Publick Joy appeared in various Shapes. On the 29th the King of Denmark laid the Foundation Stone of a new Church, intended for that Quarter of the Town which is to be built upon the Place of Amalienburg. His Daniſh Majeſty has made ſeveral Promotions, but none of foreign Concern, except Baron Vence to be his Miniſter at the Court of Madrid, whom he has likewiſe gratified with the Key of Chamberlain.

Hambourg, Nov. 1, N. S. We learn by the laſt Advices from Copenhagen, that the Duke of Saxe Hildburghauſen intended to ſet out from thence with his Dutcheſs on the 6th of this Month on his Return to his own Country; but that his Brother would enter into the Service of his Daniſh Majeſty, in Quality of Major General. We alſo learn by the ſame Advices, that M. Titley, Envoy Extraordinary from the King of Great Britain, had had the Honour of entertaining their Daniſh Majeſties, and the Duke and Dutcheſs of Saxe Hildbourghauſen, at Dinner on the 23d paſt; and that theſe great Perſonages all ſeemed mightily pleaſed with the Reception they had met with from that Miniſter.

Hamburgh, Nov. 4, N. S. The Duke of Brunſwick, with the Prince Lewis his Brother, and ſome Gentlemen of their Court, have paſſed a few Days here incognito, and after having ſeen the publick Buildings, and what elſe is thought remarkable in the City of Hamburgh, their Highneſſes, with their Attendants, ſet out this Morning on their Return to Wolffenbuttle. Count Lynar, appointed his Daniſh Majeſty's Miniſter to the Ruſſian Court, arrived here laſt Night, and intended to proceed on his Journey to Petersburgh as to Day.

Francfort, Nov. 3, N. S. We have received Advice, that the Dutcheſs of Deux Ponts was brought to Bed the 18th of laſt Month of a Prince, who had been baptized by the Name of Clement Auguſte.

Hague, Nov. 4, N. S. On Sunday Evening laſt, the 2d Inſtant, died at her Houſe in the Hague, after a lingering Illneſs, the Lady Dowager Cadogan, Relict of the late Lieutenant General Earl Cadogan, and Mother to her Grace the Dutcheſs of Richmond. His Serene Highneſs the Prince of Orange, it is ſaid, will return on Thurſday next to the Hague from Loo, for ſome few Days.

Hague, Nov. 6, N. S. Count Dehn, Envoy Extraordinary from the King of Denmark, having preſented a Letter from the King his Maſter to the Preſident of the Aſſembly of the States General, notifying the Marriage of the Princeſs Louiſe his Siſter to the Duke of Saxe Hilbourghauſen; 'tis expected the States will ſoon cauſe a Letter of Congratulation to be ſent to his Daniſh Majeſty on that Occaſion. Letters from Dutch Flanders ſay, that Felt Marſhal Count Maurice of Naſſau Ouwerkerk had been at Sluys, and after having viſited its Fortifications, was ſet out to viſit the other Fortifications in his Government. We have Advice from Loo, that M. Haren had been there from Bruſſels, and after having conferred with his Serene Highneſs the Prince of Orange, was ſet out again on his Return thither. Count Charles Bentinck and his Lady, who had been to wait on the Dutcheſs of Richmond, his Lady's Siſter, to Bruſſels, are returned hither. We have received Advice, that the two Regiments of Heſſe Darmſtadt, which were in the Service of this State during the late War, and are now on their Return Home, arrived on the 25th paſt at Kerpen and Brauweiſer, where they they halted on the 26th, and on the 27th, the two Regiments ſeparated and continued their March on both Sides the Rhine.

London, October 30.

On Saturday laſt Sir Samuel Pennant, Knt. Lord Mayor Elect for the Year enſuing, was ſworn at Guildhall; when the Chair and other Enſigns of Mayoralty were ſurrendered to him in the accuſtomed Manner.

This Day the new Lord Mayor, accompanied by the late Lord Mayor, the Aldermen, Recorder, and one of the Sheriffs, in their Scarlet Gowns, (the other Sheriff being indiſpoſed) went in their Coaches to the Water-ſide, the Sword and Mace being carried before them, and the City Officers attending; and from thence proceeded in the City Barge, attended by the ſeveral Companies in their reſpective Barges adorned with Streamers and Pendants to Weſtminſter; and having walked round the Hall, and ſolemnly ſaluted all the Courts, they went to the Exchequer Bar, and the Lord Mayor did there take the Oaths appointed, and having recorded Warrants of Attorney in the proper Courts, returned by Water to Black Fryers, and from thence in Coaches with the uſual Solemnity to Guildhall, where a magnificent Entertainment was provided; at which were preſent the Great Officers of State, divers of the Nobility, Lords of his Majeſty's moſt Honourable Privy Council, the Judges, and other Perſons of Quality and Diſtinction.
